

21st Birthday Cheer

Sixteen-year-olds can drive. Eighteen-year-olds can vote, die for their country and buy tobacco. Twenty-one-year-olds can drink, and when they reach that landmark birthday, more often than not, that's what they do.

Turning 21 is one of life's major celebrations for most people. Some go out at midnight, the minute they turn 21, and start drinking. Many bars offer a free birthday beer for 21-year-olds, or sometimes more than one. One favorite birthday tradition includes drinking 21 beers, not recommended and friends buying the most unpleasant tasting drink they can find for the newly legal drinker.

If you know someone who is about to turn the golden age, and won't be able to celebrate with them, we are here to help you initiate your loved one the right way. We have so many unique gift ideas, I hardly know where to begin. The most obvious choice is the Happy Birthday Beer Gift (featured below), but why not make it extra special by including your favorite beer from our beer shop. If you had something more custom in mind we have just the thing for you, personalized beer. A great gift all on its own, these great personalized beers can be added to just about any gift you can imagine! Who else can offer you that? That's why we are your Gift Specialists.

Happy Birthday Beer Gift

Start a 21st, or any birthday party off the right way with this festive beer gift basket.

This vibrant birthday gift comes with a cute little birthday hat, two shiny birthday balloons, a fresh 6-pack or 12-pack of California microbrews in 12oz bottles, a fun birthday noisemaker, a Beer on the Wall koozie to keep the beer cold, and your personalized gift message all topped off with a lovely bow.

You can make this gift extra special by personalizing it with one of the many label options we have available to suit the personality of the birthday guy or gal.

What? We are featuring an East coast brewery this month you say? Relax let me explain. Hook & Ladder Brewing Co. started out in California and later moved to its new location in Silver Springs, Maryland.

Just a dream in 1998, the Hook & Ladder Brewing Company served its first beer in December of 1999. The first year we started the Bunch of the Month Club we teamed up with the Hook & Ladder Brewing Company and featured their beers. In fact, we featured the first batch of Hook & Ladder's Grassfire Wheat ever bottled!

Former volunteer firefighter, Rich Fleischer moved out to California and was amazed at the thriving microbrew industry he found. Soon after tasting his first California microbrew, he started homebrewing his own beer, one thing led to another and in December of 1999, the Hook & Ladder Brewing Company served its first beer.

With experience in the fire and rescue service the Hook & Ladder name was chosen as a symbol of pride and honor, to pay tribute to the brave men and women who serve and protect our communities.

At Hook & Ladder Brewing they believe in great beer in the company of good friends, so we bring you three great beers for your drinking pleasure. Each of the beers are carefully crafted with the finest quality ingredients for a distinctive taste we know you will enjoy. Try one tonight, you just might get hooked.

Hook & Ladder Lighter

The right choice when you desire a flavorful beer with a 'lighter' body. Only 94 calories!

Hook & Ladder Golden Ale

A crisp, clean American Ale. Perfect for extinguishing your fiery thirst or when you simply crave an ice-cold beer.

Hook & Ladder Backdraft Brown

A smooth and refreshing beer loaded with flavor. Specialty malts balanced with just the right amount of cascade hops give it a roasted taste and beautiful brown color.
