Lost Coast Brewing Company

From its name, the Lost Coast Brewery may sound as if it were exactly that — lost on the Northern coast of California. But for many as far as we know, it is the only brewery in California owned by two women - Barbara Groom & Wendy Pound. In 1986 they thought to themselves, "What could be better than making your own beer?" Well, making your own beer and selling it!

They got their hops in a row and walked away from their 9 to 5 jobs as a marriage & family counselor and a pharmacist to pursue their beer brewing dreams.

After much brewing and planning, including many visits to pubs in England and Wales, Wendy and Barbara opened the Lost Coast Brewery and Café in Eureka.

"I've always loved beer," says Barbara, "But having my own brewery just seemed like a dream."

Located in a beautiful building that is over 100 years old in downtown Eureka, the brewpub has a comfortable, funky feeling about it complete with a cool bar and fast & friendly restaurant. Both the beer & the food served there are superb - We recommend the Fish & Chips.

A look around their restaurant as well as their peculiar beer labels will give you strange Picasso flashbacks. The artist, we understand, is pretty well known around Eureka, as evidenced by several of his wall murals on buildings around town.

After ten years in business, they added a second bottling and brewing facility a few blocks from the brew pub. If you are in the area, just ask one of the bartenders and they will give directions. If you ask nicely, they are usually happy to give you a quick tour of the brewery.

This month we have three award winning craft brews for our club members to enjoy.

Downtown Brown is a smooth, full bodied nut brown ale that derives its rich color from a hearty compliment of Roast and Chocolate malts. Because it is lightly hopped, it lacks the bitter character of many porters and stouts allowing its subtle roasty flavors to enjoy the limelight. Its mild flavors make it a perfect beer to enjoy with food.

Indica India Pale Ale is a hoppy full bodied ale true to the high hop character of India Pale Ales. It has a higher than average alcohol content balanced by radical bittering from Columbus hops and dry hopped with generous amounts of Willamette & Centennial hop flowers.

8 Ball Stout is not for the faint hearted! It has a full, rich brown head and smells very roasty. This stout rewards the palate with robust flavor of roasted malts and heavy hops. It definitely has a full body and a really roasty flavor, but it is still very smooth as it goes down. If you like stouts, you will enjoy this one! Two thumbs up for this creamy smooth surprise!

Lost Coast Brewery's Eight ball Stout took home this years Gold Medal award in the Oatmeal Stout category. Last year, at the 2007 event, the Eight ball Stout took home the silver award while in the three previous years Lost Coast Brewery's Eight ball Stout took home three consecutive gold awards.
